Health and Safety policy

Our Health & Safety policy has been created to facilitate the establishment of confidence building relationships with our customers, stakeholders and staff

Health & Safety principles of Jungheinrich UK

The Senior Management of Jungheinrich UK regards the promotion of Health & Safety as a mutual objective for Management and Employees at all levels incorporating the external Occupational Health and Safety Standard (BS OHSAS 18001:2007).

Also, Senior Management believes that Health & Safety is of equal importance to all other management responsibilities within the company.

- It is therefore this company's policy to do all that is "so far as reasonably practicable" to prevent personal injury and damage to property and to provide and maintain a health & safe working environment.
- The Company commits itself to achieving full compliance with all the relevant Health & Safety legislation as a minimum standard, also to continual improvement in health and safety performance.
- The Company shall: -

Provide & maintain safe and healthy working conditions, integrated safety/job training and instructions to enable employees to perform their work safely and efficiently.
- Provide all necessary safety devices and personal protective equipment and supervise their correct use.
- Provide a constant and continued interest in Health & Safety matters applicable to the company's activities, in particular by consulting, informing and involving employees or their representatives wherever possible.
- In turn employees have a duty to co-operate in the spirit and operation of this policy by: -
Working safely and efficiently, using the personal protective equipment provided.
Reporting Incidents that may lead or have led to injury or damage.
Co-operating and assisting in the investigation of an accident with the objective of introducing measures to prevent a re-occurrence.
- This policy shall be kept up to date with changes in statutes and working practices and reviewed accordingly for any alterations that may be required and whenever any relevant work place changes occur.
